Florida Historic Capitol Museum

Old Willis Dairy, Tallahassee, FL

On behalf of the Florida Trust for Historic Preservation, I want to take the opportunity to say how excited we are to have the City of St. Petersburg hosting our Annual Conference. The spirit of our great city, which we all know and appreciate, will be truly embraced by the attendees of the conference in May 2017. The Florida Trust, its Board of Trustees and our local conference committee cannot express enough gratitude for your collaboration with us in making our 2017 Conference a huge success. Without special contributors like you, this event would not be possible. We look forward to a highly engaging conference well attended by our supporters of historic preservation from throughout this great State of Florida. Thank you so much for your participation!
